St. John's Community Services (SJCS) strives to create communities of belonging where every person regardless of ability or circumstances has the opportunity to have their dreams realized. Through person-centered supports, in home care, employment services, and enabling technology we help men and women living with disabilities live as independently as possible in communities they love. St. John's Community Services also provides outreach to homeless youth and women and children fleeing domestic violence with permanent safe housing, supportive case management and a hopeful future.
